

YOUTH'S LEG BROKEN; HORSE IS KILLED

Animal Falls, Throwing Rider
Several Feet and Breaking Own Neck.

Shot, as if by a catapult, over the head of the horse he was riding, George Bushman, a Tribune carrier, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Bushman, 250 North Ninth West street, sustained a broken ankle Saturday afternoon in an accident which resulted in the horse's death.

Young Bushman was urging his riding pony at a lively gait over the road near the Jordan river at a point where the stream crosses Tenth North street. Suddenly, the horse stumbled and fell to the ground and the rider was thrown a distance of about fifteen feet out into the roadway.

When Bushman attempted to get up he found out that his ankle was broken. The horse did not fare as well as the rider. In some manner the neck was twisted under the body of the horse and broken, death resulting almost simultaneously.

To Arrange for Banquet.

A committee, consisting of Freeman Morningstar, A. J. Bettles, Mrs. George Morrow, Mrs. F. L. Cowan and Dr. David Cassidy, will meet Monday night at 153 Main street for the purpose of arranging the details of the big Canadian club banquet to be given May 24 at the Knutsford hotel. A feature of the evening's entertainment will be an excellent programme of music and speeches.

LAMBERT FOOTMAN IN ROYAL HOUSEHOLD

Many Times Salt Laker Waited on Late King When He Was Prince of Wales.

George Lambert, residing at 237 Iowa avenue, was a footman in the royal household of the Duke of Cambridge, during the time that the late King Edward VII. was the Prince of Wales. Mr. Lambert was what is known as a match footman, that is, a man who is the same height as the other servants in the royal household. On many occasions, Mr. Lambert says, he waited on the prince, lighted his cigarettes, brought his drink or held his hat. Usually, when the Prince of Wales would visit with the Duke of Cambridge, he would come inognito. On these occasions he would joke with the servants, and often his tips were quite large. The prince always carried new money.

At the coronation of King Edward, Mr. Lambert was a footman on one of the royal carriages, and at that time was employed in the capacity of valet to the Earl of Camperdown. During his connection with the house of Camperdown, Mr. Lambert, on more than one occasion, was sent to the chambers of the king to wait upon him. In speaking about King Edward, Mr. Lambert said that he always appeared to be genial, had pleasing ways but had a rather gruff voice.

SUGGESTS BULLETIN TO EDUCATE PEOPLE

No Funds, However, and Insurance
Department Will Ask
Newspapers for Help.

Willard Done, acting insurance commissioner during the absence of Col. George B. Squires, who is on the coast, has received a communication from the Home Insurance company, New York, in reply to a query sent recently by Mr. Done asking if the local insurance department could be of any assistance in the campaign to educate architects and builders for the construction of more fire-proof buildings, thus reducing the liabilities of the insurance companies. This campaign was started by a little pamphlet being issued, entitled, "An Appeal to Architects and Builders."

The letter to Mr. Done suggests that if it is possible the New York society would be glad to have the local department make public the information contained in the pamphlet and thus help educate the people. The local department has not the means of publishing a bulletin, however, and Mr. Done, therefore, calls on the newspapers of Salt Lake to assist him in bringing this matter to public attention.

Mr. Done also received a postal from Colonel Squires Saturday, stating that he will leave the coast for home Sunday evening. This will bring him to Salt Lake about Monday night. Colonel Squires is much improved in health.

Mr. Done said Saturday that all the certificates to companies doing business in the state, and their agents, have been issued for the year, and the annual report of the department is now in the publisher's hands.

ITCHING STOPS; RED NOSES GO

New Skin Remedy Works Quickly and Effectively.

Many references have been made in newspaper columns lately to itching palms, red noses and pimples, which, in the opinion of those who claim to know, are but minor affections, easily and readily cured by poslam, which can be obtained at Schramm Johnson, Drugs—five stores—or at any good druggist's. Still, it must be remembered that poslam, as originally evolved, is first, last and all the time a remedy for eczema, stopping the itching immediately and quickly restoring the health of the skin. So with every form of itching disease, hives, rash, ringworm, fever blisters, piles, acne, sores, scabs and eruptions of every kind.

The sample package of poslam which the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West 25th street, New York, is sending out by mail free of charge to every one who writes for it tells the whole story and is sufficient to clear the complexion over night, or to rid the face of pimples in 24 hours.

MRS. CORA ALBRITTON CONVENTION DELEGATE

The American Woman's league met Saturday evening at the Kenyon hotel. Following the transaction of routine business, Mrs. Cora Albritton was named as a delegate to the convention to be held in St. Louis, June 8, 9 and 10. Mrs. W. H. Tibbals was the alternate, and Mrs. Sarah A. Barton was chosen as state regent.

The club now numbers more than 135. As soon as the 200 mark is reached the organization will get a chapter house here. The officers of the association are: Mrs. C. S. Kinney, president; Mrs. A. V. Taylor, vice-president; Mrs. Cora Albritton, local organizer and treasurer; Mrs. L. S. Dean, secretary. Meetings in the future will be held the second and fourth Saturdays of each month.

AWARD OF PRIZES IS TO BE EXTENDED

Utah State Fair Association Is Encouraging Manufacturers.

According to Horace S. Ensign, secretary of the Utah State fair association, a great deal of stress is to be placed this year on the manufacturing displays at the state fair, on the ground that manufacturing helps the working classes.

The list of prizes for various articles in the manufactured class has been completed, and the indications are that the display in the manufacturers' building will be one of the biggest and most attractive in the history of the state.

A quality prize will be given for every kind of article manufactured in the state. A rule has been adopted which covers every article not mentioned in the regular premium list. This rule follows: "Any home manufactured article on exhibition, which is not named in the list and which has sufficient merit, may be awarded a premium by the board. Articles exhibited in this class must be wholly manufactured in Utah by the exhibitor."

Salesman Files Action.

J. A. Brown filed an attachment in the district court Saturday against the H. B. Claffin company to recover a balance of $476, alleged to be due for services rendered for the company as its salesman for Utah, Idaho and Wyoming between January 1 and July 1, 1909. Judgment is also asked for $15 as expense money for a trip taken by Brown from St. Louis to New York and return on account of the business of the company.

MISSION MINISTER RECEIVES NEW CALL

Rev. W. W. Des Autels May Become Pastor of Idaho Falls Church.

The Rev. W. W. Des Autels, pastor of the Burlington and Rio Grande chapels of the Baptist church, will likely accept a call to the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Idaho Falls. Mr. Des Autels left for the Idaho town Saturday morning and will confer with the membership of the church there with the understanding that if he desires to make Idaho Falls his home the call will be formally tendered him.

Mr. Des Autels was for a number of years pastor of the Jefferson Avenue branch of the Woodward Avenue Baptist church in Detroit, Mich. About a year ago he received a call to take charge of the mission work of the Baptist church in this city, entering upon his duties March 1, 1909.

When Mr. Des Autels took charge of the mission work here the active membership list comprised only four names. At this time the membership is forty-one. Within the next month it is thought this number will be increased to fifty. If Mr. Des Autels decides to accept the call to the Idaho Falls church his departure will cause genuine regret among his many friends in this city. He received a call recently from the First Baptist church of Evanston, Wyo., which he did not accept.

Letters in Bowthorpe Estate.

P. M. Bowthorpe filed a petition in the probate division of the district court Saturday asking for letters of administration of the estate of Neph B. Bowthorpe, who died in Big Cottonwood on May 26, 1908. The estate consists of real property of the value of $3000 and personal property valued at $2500. There are ten heirs mentioned in the petition.
